LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the Trustees of Silsby Free Public Library and Citizens of Acworth:

In presenting this my fourteenth annual report, I wish first to express my thanks to all who have given books and magazines the past year, and have helped in other ways.

Eight hundred sixty-nine books and 931 magazines have been loaned. Our library has met with a great loss by the death of Samuel A. Nye, who was one of the Trustees and always stood ready to help when needed.

Mrs. John R. Smith has been chosen as Assistant Librarian.

Respectfully submitted,

ANGIE H. LIVINGSTONE, Librarian.

Report of Board of Health

Since the report last year there have been no cases of malignant, contagious or infectious diseases.

The clinic for children of pre-school age was not as well attended as last year. More mothers should take advantage of this opportunity for the examination of the children and the early correction of defects.

There is every reason to believe that there have been several cases of milder epidemic diseases; as measles, chicken-pox, whooping cough and mumps. The doctors and parents should report these to the Board of Health.

There was one death from tuberculosis.

FRED S. ROBBINS, Health Officer.

The Public Schools

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Members of the Acworth School Board:

I herewith submit my third report as superintendent of your schools.

According to figures, checked by your State Board of Education, the past year has been the first since 1917 to show a decrease in costs of education in this state. New Hampshire is economical. National statistics show her to be eighth in the number of years children attend school, seventeenth in the average days of attendance while she is twenty-ninth in average salaries paid to teachers and twenty-second in her per pupil expenditures for elementary and secondary schools.

Acworth's part in this movement for greater efficiency and, at the same time, greater economy, is shown in two ways. By definite economy the special appropriation to cover deficiencies of previous years was made unnecessary. This resulted in a saving of $200 the current year. The following is a direct quotation from the Biennial Report of the State Board of Education of June 30, 1926. "The town of Acworth shows the progressive movement. In the year 1918, the schools were opened for from 24 to 31 weeks and the per cent of attendance was 87. For 1926 the schools were opened 36 weeks and were actually in session 347 half days. The per cent of attendance was 93." A glance at the statistical report of the past year will show that, for 1927, another step was taken, in that the actual half-days of school number 358. The percent of attendance, however, dropped to 91. This year an unusually capable corps of teachers is attempting to bring the record up to the 95 mark. The loyal cooperation of parents will produce the results. The attendance at two of the schools this fall has been disappointing.

I desire to urge upon the district the jacketing of the school stoves. This is not an expense but a matter of economy as the heat is more evenly and more advantageously distributed. The saving in fuel consumption will soon save the initial cost.

It is recommended that a program be entered upon whereby one school could be painted each year. There is no need of pointing out that this is another economy measure.

The honorable record of former graduates of Acworth High is equalled by those of last year. Students of this school are now in Concord, Charlestown and Keene High Schools, Kimball Union Academy and Brattleboro Business College. A failure is yet to be reported. The enrollment this year is nine—two of these in the second year class. Four pupils are to be prepared to enter next September, making a probable enrollment of eleven. A study of the elementary schools indicates that this is about the number that may be expected for the next few years. If this proves to be the case the cost to the town will be about that of the state average.

I once more wish to express my appreciation of the helpful cooperation and advice of the Acworth School Board.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY W. GILLMORE, Supt. of Schools
